Artist Unite presents:

TABULA LUNAR
by Hector Canonge

October 29 & 30, 2009
Front Wall of Coliseum Theater on 181st. St. & Broadway
(A or #1 Train to 181 Street)

After Party: Friday, October 30, 9 - 11 pm
@ Red Room Vinoteca (1 Bennet Ave. at 181 St.)

Public Intervention Projection explores the universal fascination of people with... the moon while evoking mythical, romantic, fantastic, and obscure attributes of the celestial body. TABULA LUNAR is an ephemeral surface on which people's street presence is incorporated into visuals of and narratives about the lunar landscape appropriated from popular cinematic culture. Poetic and intrusive, familiar yet out of this world, intimate yet made into a public collaborative performance, the project prompts a possible dialogue of our connection to the night sky and what can be seen of it in an urban setting.
